we all know we should save for retirement right but we don t we re just not sure where to start or when experts conjure magic numbers and use complicated terminology do we really need a million dollars and if we don't have a snowball's chance in hell of saving that much should we even bother? Gail's answers are no and yes. There is no magic number that fits everyone and yes, you must bother. The hardest part of retirement planning is getting started, so Gail walks you through the steps to put momentum on your side, even if it's with as little as a dollar a day. She'll help you figure out where you are now, where you want to be, and how to get there. No expert Gail included should offer a one-size-fits-all solution, which is why never too late has concrete steps for developing a plan that is right for you. Never too late is about cutting through the crap, taking charge, and taking action to create the future you want.

In an honest, practical style, this book shows how to make your money work for you. Budgeting, saving, and getting debt paid off are explained in an easy-to-understand way.

As a parent, you want the best for your kids. You work hard to provide them with every advantage you want them to be safe, smart, and healthy. Yet when it comes to money, it's a whole different story. If you're like most people, you'd rather run a mile through a desert with a camel on your back than talk about money with your children. Are you going to follow in your parents' footsteps, keeping financial matters a deep, dark secret, or do you want your children to have a healthy, balanced attitude toward money? Then it's time to pull your head out of the sand and roll up your sleeves. Gail Vaz Oxlade, Canada's #1 personal finance expert, believes that teaching kids about money is a parent's job. She knows that building confidence and money skills starts with an age-appropriate allowance to help your kids accomplish important tasks, making saving a habit, learning the difference between needs and wants, using the magic jars to balance competing goals, creating lifelong money management skills. What better gift could you give your children than the confidence to control their money rather than letting their money control them? Let Gail help you raise money-smart kids.
