magic for beginners is written by a practicing magician known in professional magic circles throughout the world it is profusely illustrated with over a hundred specially drawn diagrams the tricks described in this book are quite simple to perform and require precious little skills yet their final effect is to mystify and astound the audience they do not call for any special apparatus and can be performed with what is readily available in the house

best known are the seven main chakras root chakra hara solar plexus heart chakra throat chakra third eye and crown chakra but they are not the only chakras there are also for example the minor chakras in the arms and the legs of particular interest are also the intermediate chakras between the main chakras which limit their lands like borders with gates that can pump the life force from one chakra to another and play an important role in the formation and resolution of trauma the chakras are the organs of the life force body just as the physical body has a blood circulation the life force body also has a life force circulation the kundalini which flows in the three central veins of the sushumna and ida and pingala furthermore there is a special form of secondary chakras that transform the images in the chakras into docking points for the outside world the kshetrams and the aura points they correspond to the sense organs and the hands of the physical body in order to be able to grasp this complex system which is nevertheless constructed in a very simple and coherent way in all its details and in its great elegance this book compares the knowledge of the chakras of different peoples the acupuncture points of chinese medicine the marma points from indian ayurveda and the rang dröl points from tibetan medicine the result of these considerations is the description of the meaningful attitude in life after all the chakras are also the organs of the psyche and their healthy state therefore is also the healthy attitude of a person few religious mythological figures evoke such fierce emotions as the devil for this reason alone it is worth taking a closer look at him he is anything but a uniform figure he is the god of the wilderness the archetype of the dead at their re procreation the explanation of injustice in a world that a just god is supposed to have created the prosecutor and executioner at the afterlife court the god of the heathens the rebel the sex demon the shadow of an entire civilization and even more he is the lord of the dead his hell used to be the burial chamber of the tumuli the fire of cremation has become the fire of hell and the devil s grandmother used to be the afterlife goddess a long time ago the devil is what the majority fears and he is the shadow the repressed what is missing and thus also what is secretly most longed for in christianity the devil is the punished perpetrator in hell and christ is the redeemed victim in heaven but who is the one who is whole who does not embody the power molded perpetrator role like the devil nor the powerlessness molded victim role like christ who is the one who embodies the independent sovereign self contained and creative power
